From the design of the room to welcome visitors to the complete bathroom decoration, everything we see below has been created by hands that proudly proclaim themselves Mexican. The examples are 21 but we assure you that there is plenty of talent in these houses. Do you dare to meet them? Ahead!

1. An intimate atmosphere that invites to be in it a good time The greatest achievement in interior design is that you invite to be in it, and the longer you get it, the better it will be because it denotes tranquility and comfort within your atmosphere.
2. Elegance in all its splendor Now a design that shows us how elegance is not fought with anywhere in the world, on the contrary, it is wonderful anywhere, because it is contagious of the peculiarities; here for example they are exalted with the painting and the decorative figures.
3. That the plants are always welcome Thanks to this work, it is easy to detect how well they look and even how necessary are those plants for interiors. They give freshness, purification, color, and beauty, when it has a protagonism like the one we admire in this design.
4. Now a tropical touch Mexico has a considerable amount of climates, so it is not unreasonable to create a tropical environment inside the houses, especially if they are located near a beach. It is also not so complicated: terra colors, casual textures and a palm is more than enough.
5. There are no geographical limits anymore! The sophistication is not fought with any country, except now that the trends are shared around the world.
6. A simple but very original combination. This design created in Mexico shows us that in the interior design anyone can be a protagonist.
7. Wood as a favorite. This beautiful dining room gives us more reasons to allow wood to play a leading role in our homes, moreover, it even invites us not to touch it more than the merely necessary.
8. The passivity that only a bedroom can have. Surely it happens to you as it does to us, the blue chosen for this room and the exhilarated neatness with white makes imagine an atmosphere full of passivity. This means success in creation.
9. A wonderful work done with white color. The white color is the protagonist of this interior decoration where from the beginning it was thought that the harmonies would have more weight than the contrasts. The result fascinated us, you?
10. 1 A little floral motifs always go well. Disney Interiorismo is the firm that created this room design where the floral themes are protagonists within the furniture, and that makes us remember that creative and happy personality that in Mexico is contagious to things.
11. A small house inspires ingenuity. There are no creative limits in small houses, although many people say otherwise. Just look like this dining room, which even contains 10 chairs, is so close to the living room and kitchen entrance without it making everything look crowded. This is ingenuity!
12. Love for free space. The interior of a home should not be saturated, you should even give importance to free spaces. If this is done in a good way the home will look nice and not empty, just like the ground floor the first floor of the house shown above.

13. Houses that seem from another era. Tastes break genres and professionals from any corner of the world know, that is, while it is very important that a house is aesthetic, it is also vital that denote the personality and tastes of those who inhabit it.
14. The living room and dining room can share space and look great. With this tendency for the shared areas, the room next to the dining room has become increasingly common, however, it is not so easy to make them live together, much less in such a magnificent way. The tricks to achieve it? Have a chord color range, the appropriate textures, and a little and well-taken care of the use of the contrast.
15. Marvel color as the source of vitality. In this interior design that saw the light in Mexico, the yellow carries all the burden of filling the area with vitality and color, and it does it in a good way because on this side of the continent the vibrant tones cannot miss.
16. Let the typical be included in the design. Each country has endemic creations, which show the traditions of the place: in Mexico they are known as crafts. And because of everything they represent, they cannot miss this count of Mexican designs; besides they do not need to be many, here with the handmade picture was more than enough.
17. Ingenuity and necessity. A design before looking pretty must adapt to the needs. Achieve these two qualities shows that the creative professional knows that beauty goes hand in hand with functionality, and that does not depend on the country where it is made but the talent ... and in Mexico there is much.
18. In the place of the little ones that is made? As it is said colloquially, here and in China the little ones of the house need attention and care; for that reason your room must denote these two qualities, you always considered the personality and the taste that they have. And just that was done in this design, because it shows at first glance that the little owner was considered in the creation.
19. Professionalism is seen even in public places. In Mexico we have begun to take care of the appearance not only of the houses but of the public places, and with the same dedication, it is enough to look up so that these public toilets communicate us visually.
20. Mexican passion for chocolate. The chocolate color is here the main element and with this it shows us that in Mexico all those terra tones have a special consideration.
21. Attention to the smallest details. Being a retailer when creating interior designs is one of the highest qualities, because that ensures that at the end of the job the result is complete and even the smallest ornament or gift has its special place. These Mexican professionals have it so you could not finish this book of ideas without highlighting its creation.
