When you desire to throw or put up a lingerie party? Lingerie parties are becoming popular sometimes now and a lot of girls and guys are asking how do we throw a successful and mind-blowing lingerie party? To start with you need to decide what kind of lingerie party you want to throw. I bet some of us don't know there is more than one kind of lingerie party?

First among any lingerie parties is the party where you have only girls or both guys and girls who are asked to come to a lingerie party. If the party is mainly for girls only, you will possibly need the girls to wear more revealing lingerie, and likely more of your invited girl guests will wear lingerie.<sup>168</sup> This is where the planning and preparation starts. Firstly you want to make the wearing of lingerie compulsory? Also, is this going to be coed? These decisions have to be made first as they will determine a lot of what is to happen. Keeping the bride to be in mind should direct you in what presents to buy And after all, making the girls be the center of attention, involved or embarrassed is a large part of the reason for the party. Keep it a surprise and the anticipation by everyone who knows about it will add to the excitement. Lingerie parties don't just have to be about just lingerie, but the wearing of lingerie can create a sense of relaxation, especially if it is to be worn with comfort being the key. This can turn into a riot of fun as guys only may allow all the girls to feel comfortable wearing flirty or provocative lingerie. Keep in mind that this may make some girls uncomfortable, so plan accordingly.

lines of jewelry or makeup parties and have been around for a long period of time. Some organizations specialize in this type of party, but we suggest you inform or contact a local lingerie boutique around you and see if they are interested in a lingerie party. They may know of models, or you can "volunteer" your friends to model the lingerie items for everyone. This area of lingerie parties should include some good appetizers and light refreshments. How do you make money? You can "negotiate" with the local boutique for a percentage of the sales, as girls may choose to buy the lingerie for themselves or for a friend. The relaxed atmosphere of one's home, combined with the ability to ask questions and learn all about a product, as well as getting to try on the items on in a very private setting encourages many girls to open their pocketbook. There are no hard and fast rules, so any variation of the two types of lingerie parties should work out just fine.
