
Importance Of Life

Oscar Wilde said that "Life is too important to be taken seriously. " It's true, the line said that you don't have to waste your life, there are many important things that you have to finish in your life. There are many challenges what are waiting for you to make you stronger and wiser. There is time to change, change your laziness. You can't reach your goal if you are a lazy person. Carol Burnet said that "Only I can change my life, no one can do it for me". This quote said that other person cannot control you, you can do it by yourself. Don't let the other person to change you, because it will be non-sense if others do that. You know yourself, so you know that if there something's wrong to you. You can teach yourself how to become a responsible person. There is also a problems or shortcomings that comes to your life, and you can overcome it by having a patience or finding a way to solve it. Just like Helen Keller said that "although the world is full of suffering, it is also full of the overcoming of it". And in short, there's no perfect person in this world. But there are also problems that cannot be fixed again. For example, the trust of a one person, it is very difficult to restore someone's trust, especially if you hurt them too much.

The trust of someone is like a paper, when it tears someday, it cannot be restored anymore. But what if the trust of someone will break and loses? It's probably the most difficult to get back to, because when it is gone, even if they love someone, they will not believe in what the other person saying. And every words and deeds that release by a person has a suspicious of other people. And that is the reason why it is hard to lose someone's trust, because it affects the love of a one person. I have a question to all of you, how to restore someone's trust? Here are some tips on how to restore of a person; First, you must apologize to a person that you hurt, to apologize is the key, so they can easily move on. Second, show them that you really want to change, so that they may think that deserve to forgive you. And last, be patient even if it needs to take a long time, because a broken piece is really hard to restore. And if their trust is already back, take care of it, because you don't know if their trust will be restored again later.

Life is too important to us, so you should make your life happy, because you do not know how long you will live in these world. You start doing it by studying hard, you have discovered new things since you are in elementary period until now. We are discovering new things to increase our vocabulary and we cannot reach our dreams without knowing new things in life. It is so important to learn or try new things and push yourself out of your comfort zone. There is nothing to lose so you have to start today and learn something new period and when you finish your studies, you will be graduated on college and you will get a good job and you will live a peaceful life, you can do what you want, it does not mean that you can do anything with whether it is bad or good. You should use your freedom in a right way, don't abuse your freedom. The best example of abusing freedom is using a drugs on a wrong way. Life is important, using drugs in a wrong move can shorten your life. In real life, everything should have a limit. You can build your own future and your dream gave guidance to your efforts. It can be your inspiration to continue building your future even if it has disappointments. We should have to work because this is the great help in our poverty in life. On the other hand, we know that this will not be fulfilled if we do not finish high school, in college as well.

So we don't have to waste our life because it is god's gift to us period most of the people, when they fell down or when they have many problems, they are thinking of or taking suicide. They did not think that they have a chance to solve their problem. When you fall, get up. Face a new stage of life, never return to the complex past of your life, it can be a lesson for how to rise or stand independent. Began again to achieve beautiful and abundant life. Doing good to others can be a challenge. May the love that we show to others is not necessarily reciprocated the same love. and be prepared to do for others more than you would expect from them if circumstances is reversed. We are the children of the same heavenly father and send us into the world to do good things to one another and when we sacrifice for the good of others, we will be good in the eyes of others. It is important to be a responsible person because it is one of the qualities needed in order to obtain cleanliness, our goal in life. Or it is a component on how we show our smoothly fellowship with others. I have one question; why should we work together? Whether you are poor or rich person whether you are famous or ordinary people, we need to work together. I hope we see how this lucky enough this season and how other people need us. Every day we all face different kinds of struggles, we always have to make a choice, what we are today is the product of choices that we chose. Sometimes, we make a wrong choice, we fall but we should learn to step up. Facing difficulties are part of our lives, we cannot escape from it. There is also a saying that "no man is an island", no one can live alone, we all need each other specially in times of difficulties, we should not waste time making friends or learn to appreciate other people. We should always ask God for help or guidance. Facing challenges teachers to adapt, to learn, to adjust to life.

Remember, you cannot spell challenge without change. it helps us to grow as a human being whether if it is personal or for the professional development. It melts us as a person. But on the contrary, not all of us has a capability to face challenges, most of us having a hard time dealing with it, they easily give up on the bad things that come their way. We should help ourselves. We should learn pick things up for our betterment. i believe that the best way to conquer challenges is the power of the prayer and the guidance of the people who loves and appreciate us. be strong and have courage. Be mingle with someone you know well known person to seek advice, make them an example. Learn from their mistakes, and know how they conquer challenges that came their way. Know their stories. Remember, we can become a brave person, we should accept that we all commit mistakes. Learn to step up again, one way of facing challenges is to pray, God is always there for us, all we have to do is to pray, ask for help. Just ask god for strength to make the most of our everyday life. After we conquer challenges, we should set goals. We should make a list of a positive things that happened during our time of hardship, so there is always something to look back to when we encounter problems. We should set goals to avoid those circumstances. Just try to make a good and wise decision. I think that the important saying is to learn from our own mistakes. That is the first thing to remember. Do not forget to ask God for a guidance. Learn to appreciate people, what people do to help you.

Learn to appreciate people who never left you during your times of hardship. Life is something that is in this indispensable and should not be taken for granted. Life is given to us by God, it is the gift of God, so we must not waste the opportunity provided by God to live in this world peacefully and freedom. It does not mean that if we said freedom, you will be free no matter what you do, do not abuse the word freedom. You must also be happy even for a moment, because you never know when you will be lost in this world. You also have to help people in need as much as possible, so you can be good in the eyes of people around you. But sometimes, there are shortcomings in your life and that will be your challenge. That challenge makes you stronger, and you have to be brave to face your challenges even if you made a mistakes, you have to get up if you make a mistake in your actions, because there is no perfect person in this world. All of us had a mistaken in our whole life. After we finish a challenges, we should set a goal. So we have a new challenge that we have to finish again, it will be repeat again and again until we prove to others that we are strong enough, and independent and we should always ask God for help or guidance.
