
North Korea Nations

North Korea is a threat to your allies and it is very necessary make the Korean Peninsula that is not nuclearized. In Vancouver on January 16, 2018 Canada invited over 20 nations including Russia and China about increasing sanctions on North Korea's nuclear program. "U.S. Secretary of State Rex Tillerson, the meeting's co-hosts, were united during a closing news conference in emphasizing that a nuclear-armed North Korea would never be accepted." The Canadian Press, S. (2018, January 17). Diplomacy is the preferred action and convincing North Korea that continuing its nuclear program will only cause more sanctions that will only hurt the North Korean's future and people.

"We agree that the need for UN member states, especially China and Russia, to fully implement agreed-upon sanctions is essential to their success," The Canadian Press, S. (2018, January 17). Rex Tillerson. Without the enforcement from Russia and China it will be extremely difficult to cripple the North Korean economy. Both China and Russia have been accused of supplying oil to North Korea. Both China and Russia argue the implantation of more sanctions will only increase North Korea's nuclear ambitions. Both China and Russia "have previously denied the charges and criticized Tuesday's gathering as potentially harmful to peace prospects on the Korean peninsula." The Canadian Press, S. (2018, January 17).

The message is extremely clear that the only option for the North is to give up the pursuit of ICBMs that can be used forcefully to cause destruction to its perceived enemies. One of the discussed possible sanctions during Monday's meeting was the enforcement of smuggling of North Korean items. Tillerson said, "the results were not expected to result in military action but instead see illicit North Korean goods identified and seized when ships stop in ports of call." The Canadian Press, S. (2018, January 17).

He also recommends that we need China and Russia to get their act together since they have not been following United Nation based sanctions. Rex Tillerson wants North Korea's most influential neighbors to try harder and to think about the possible consequences. USA and Canada called this meeting due to the recent missile testing by North Korea. The North's recent actions clearly justify a greater implantation of sanctions for greater world peace. Freeland and others emphasized "that they were not seeking regime change, and suggested that by abandoning its nuclear aspirations, Pyongyang would help bring a safer, more prosperous future to its people." The Canadian Press, S. (2018, January 17). Its North Korea's actions that are making the entire world less safe, it needs to be solved primarily with diplomacy or secondarily with force or the consequences associated may be irreprehensible.
