
Peter Kurten Biography

Peter Kurten was born in May 26, 1883. During Peter Kurten's childhood, he was beaten up by his father every day in front of his brothers and mother. Peter Kurten's dad was an alcoholic, which was the reason for leading him to beat up Peter and his mother. Peter claims that his life was ruined by sexual violence at the age of nine by his father. Kurten also claims he had drowned two of his school friends at his age nine. Peter Kurten didn't finish school because he ran away from home for a robbery and was put in jail. Peter Kurten was married. Peter Kurten dropped out of school because of shoplifting food and some clothes. Peter at school would like to try to start a fight with anybody. Peter Kurten hung out with the wrong people as a young boy. Peter Kurten was with a man that lived in the same apartment. The man would catch animals and would sometimes torture and kill the animals he caught, and Peter Kurten soon began to do the same. He then started having sex with animals. Between his adult years, Peter Kurten began learning the way of the streets.

At the age of 16 years, Peter was charged with stealing from stores like food and some things to wear to live based on what he was saying. Peter Kurten had an anger issue and had treatment for it. Peter Kurten had killed nine women victims because of his anger issues. Peter Kurten was killing with a knife and hitting with a hammer; he was stabbing the victims lots of times. In May 25, 1913, Peter Kurten's first documented murder was a ten-year-old victim, Christine Klein. Christine was sexually assaulted and was stabbed in her home while her parents were working down stairs under her room. Peter Kurten was caught and he was jailed in that day until 1921. Peter Kurten was free to go because there was not enough evidence. After he was released, he moved out to Altenburg where he got married to a former prostitute. Peter Kurten's wife had been jailed for murdering her husband. Peter Kurten and his wife were both charged with one-degree murder.

Peter Kurten wanted to try to forgive what happened to him in the past. He started by working and trying to build a good life. But in 1929, Peter Kurten started to remember about what his father did to his mom and him. Peter Kurten got mad and had stabbed Maria Kuhn and Peter Kurten reached in the killing of 9-year-old Rosa Ohliger, on February 9, 1929. She was stabbed 13 times by Peter Kurten. Then started to set fire to destroy the evidence of what happened. After all the crimes Peter Kurten did, Peter Kurten was identified as the Vampire of Düsseldorf. After the police investigation, they knew that Peter Kurten was the murderer of the nine victims. The police officers went to his wife and rewarded her to turn him in. Peter Kurten's wife needed money and she didn't like his behavior because he was acting like crazy, always angry, and turned him in.

On July 2, 1931, the jury for Peter Kurten took only 90 minutes to return a verdict of guilty on all

Need help with the assignment?

Our professionals are ready to assist with any writing!

GET HELP

counts. Peter Kurten was charged with nine death sentences.

gradesfixer.com

Need help with the assignment?

Our professionals are ready to assist with any writing!

GET HELP