
The Views Of Thomas Hobbes On Politics And Society

Thomas Hobbes was a famous philosopher in the 17th century who is famous for his books works and his political view on the society. In the late 17th century Thomas Hobbes had a connection between the royalist of the argument between the kings and the parliament were involved in the conflict on king power issue including fundraising money for the troops. During the 17th century Thomas Hobbes had no choice but to giving King Charles support, so king Charles I can defend his own rights.

Royalist members of parliament used Thomas Hobbes part of study of a written subject in the arguments. The study of written subject was moved and of his works the elements of law, Natural and Politic are the finest works of Thomas Hobbes of political philosophy. During Thomas Hobbes trip in Paris he published his works had become one of his greatest work and his books written such as Leviathan is also known as or the matter, Forme and Power of Common wealth Ecclesiastical and civil. Before Leviathan was published during the English civil war from 1642 to 1651 when Thomas Hobbes held the argument, arguing for the necessity and natural evolution of social construct of the individuals together are united into political societies, Thomas Hobbes agreed on his theory of necessity and natural evolution of social construct following the rules and accepting the result of the duties by protecting themselves from one to another.

Thomas Hobbes published his first book De Cive of political Philosophy The Book De Cive focuses on similar titles such as Liberty, Empire, Religion is developed being the part of Political Philosophy Work is the third book in Element, Thomas Hobbes has written to address safety in England. Thomas Hobbes had started to works has become one of the most finest work has a great impact on his books such as Leviathan, or The Matter, Forme and power of a Common Wealth Ecclesiastical and civil is known as Leviathan. During the English civil war from 1642 to 1651 when Thomas Hobbes held the argument for the natural evolution of social contract occurs in people has a mutation reunion in political societies have an agreement avoiding the common rules and agree to accept the result of duties protecting themselves from one to other. Thomas Hobbes agrees on the law of euthanasia when people make their own decision by making on a choice whether to live or die end in suffering. Many people who have euthanasia relieve in pain or in suffering choose to end his or her life have the intention to end another person life to have a death taking the advantage of other people life.

On other hand Thomas Hobbes views states People have this illness causing them to have health problems occur in the body. Patients who have euthanasia have to take painkilling medication is used in treatment to make patient taking the medication to die. They are not able to function well in their body and they had suffer from having pain and in past they have a good or bad life. Thomas Hobbes does not agree on theft should not be legalized by the government because it wrong for person to steal person personal things which belongs to them without their permission. Personal things are belonged to owner are not returned back and they are stolen, criminals have to make sacrifices for their family for example getting food and getting stuffs that are useful them which might save themselves from poverty. Thomas Hobbes agrees on the government takes DNA samples from newborn babies maintaining a databank using to be match DNA from crime scene. When newborn baby is born, they are separated from their mothers taking the DNA samples from the baby. The doctors use these samples from baby by studying the many types of disorders. The government stores the DNA sample from newborn baby is born after the mother gives birth for future crimes. They use to match person DNA from the family to ensure if the person have a mental problem using to identify from family genes collecting from blood, saliva and hair.

Need help with the assignment?

Our professionals are ready to assist with any writing!

GET HELP

Thomas Hobbes agrees on there is law about arresting certain ethnic groups arrested due suspicious are interrogated fighting terrorism. There are stereotypes of ethnic groups of their race, nationality, negative view and perceptions on these ethnic groups. Stereotypes of these ethnics groups might be dangerous and suspicious. Thomas Hobbes agrees on law of terrorism people who commit crimes should be arrested and send to jail due to their actions. They should be given life sentence not to repeat the same mistake over again. Thomas Hobbes agree on law of decriminalize crimes of criminals should be arrested for crime and they should be given warning not repeat same mistake of doing another crime.

Need help with the assignment?

Our professionals are ready to assist with any writing!

GET HELP